Dear Parents/Carers,

It has been another busy week in school. On Monday, Mr Dhillon introduced the children to the UNICEF Rights Respecting Award. This charity was formed after World War 2 to protect children across the world. We are hoping to achieve the bronze level of the award this year. Mr Dhillon talked to the children about the rights of the child. Please do ask your children about this assembly. Also, this week, some of our Year 1 parents attended a reading workshop with Mr Gambon. I hope you found this helpful.

On Monday, we have Blind Dave coming into our assembly. He will be talking to the children about healthy, balanced lifestyles. He will also be talking to our older children about how he has coped with his challenges in life and the strategies he has used to develop his resilience. I'm sure that we will find him an inspiring speaker, and hopefully will be able to learn from his example.

Have a lovely weekend with your families. Thank you for your ongoing support.

Best wishes,

Lisa Gillam
Headteacher
