MINI TASK –

Spent some time answering these questions. You may want to write them down.

- What behaviour issues you are having at the moment?*
 - What strategies are you using at the moment to help you?*
 - What has worked well?*
 - What hasn't work well? Why?*

HOW TO START –

Children need a few clear and concise rules.

At school we have 4 rules that the children helped us to create.

- Think of 3 or 4 key rules that would be none negotiable in your household.
- Encourage your children to create the other rules with you.
- Display the rules somewhere in your home and refer to them when needed.
- Keep it fun and child friendly. Use language that the children will understand.

METHODS TO –

Use reward chart

- Always praise positive behaviour. You could reward with stickers.
- Avoid negative comments towards your child and try not to talk negatively about their behaviour whilst they are present.
- If you have told your child that there will be consequences for their actions always follow through with these.
- Remember to use realistic consequences that your child understands.

TIPS –

- If your child is misbehaving it may be because they are bored. Taking them outside is a good way of letting them use up extra energy and learn in a different way.
- Always praise the positive behaviour you have seen.
- Engage with your child showing them you're happy to see them and have fun with your child.
- Talk about your child's feelings and acknowledge what they have said to you instead of being dismissive. Talk with your child about the good and bad behaviour they have shown.
