News Letter

Friday 4th October 2019 Issue 005

Dear Parents/Carers,

This week, we launched our Lodge Year of Writing across the school. The children were treated (!! ) to a song from the staff all about the joys of writing, and we had a visit from Lynne Chapman, an author and illustrator who works closely with Julia Jarman.

Unfortunately, our other author, Dan Freedman was unavoidably detained but he did send a video message to the children, and he will be visiting us in November. Everybody had a wonderful time and are hopefully enthused about the joys of writing.

We also held a coffee morning this morning led by Mr Harborne. This was all about keeping our children safe on the internet. Thank you to everyone who attended. We will be running more coffee mornings in the future, so do let us know about what themes you would like them to have, and if you require any further advice on e-safety then pop in for a chat with staff.

Have a lovely weekend with your families.

Best wishes,

Lisa Gillam

We do have an answering machine and a message can be left at option 1 for sickness or option 2 to speak to Mrs Cheema direct.

Please speak clearly leaving your child's name and class and the reason for their absence.
Thank you

Internet safety:

- Place your children's computers where you can see them, where possible in communal rooms.
- Always know what they're doing and who they're talking to.
- Explain to them that not everyone online tells the truth and they should never meet strangers without a known adult present.
- Teach your children the Click Code: Zip it (keep personal information private), Block it (block disturbing messages), Flag it (report anything worrying to you).
