Issue 151

Dear Parents/Carers,

This week has been a very busy week in school. Lots of children have been out of school on different trips including visiting the Harry Potter Experience, Birmingham Museum and Art Gallery and watching a World Cup cricket match at Edgbaston Cricket Ground. All of our children have behaved brilliantly well, and have been a credit to all of us. Next week, Year 5 are going on their trip to the Severn Valley Railway which I'm sure they will thoroughly enjoy. We have another Aspirations afternoon and our Key Stage 2 Sports Day at the Oak House.

This afternoon, we are holding our annual 'Get Together' picnic in memory of the MP, Jo Cox. Last year, the children had a fabulous time eating their healthy picnics and talking to children they don't usually see in their class. I'm sure that this afternoon will be just as enjoyable - at least the sun is forecast to shine!

Have a lovely weekend with your families. Enjoy the weather.

Best wishes,

Lisa Gillam
