

'When this is all over I will...'

Hello children!

We hope you have seen the video message from the teachers at Lodge. We are missing you very much and we know it is has been very hard staying at home but we want you to have hope. Think about all the things you can do, when this is all over.

Over the holiday can you create your own poem with the title, 'When this is all over I will...'?

Be as creative as you want. Think about how you want to present your poem and decide which style of poetry you want to use.

Send the poems to Mailbox@lodge.sandwell.sch.uk by Friday 29th May 2020.

The best poems will be selected to be published on the school website.

Please note that by submitting these images you are consenting for us to publish them on the website.

We look forward to receiving your fantastic poems of hope.
Remember this will all be over soon and we can't wait to see you all.
